

Two LSS career opportunities

The Legal Services Society (LSS) is currently looking for two seasoned lawyers to join the organization. Both positions require considerable criminal law experience, preferably with legal aid work.

Managing Lawyer, Large Criminal Cases

- This position will oversee the administration, management, and provision of defence counsel in large, complex criminal cases.

Managing Lawyer, Criminal Law Services

- This position is responsible for the management of criminal law tariff services and for the implementation and supervision of criminal law related projects and services.

Both positions are located in the downtown Vancouver office. They report to the Manager, Legal Services, and are included in the Professional Employees Association bargaining unit.

For more information about these positions, including how to apply, please visit our website at www.legalaid.bc.ca. The deadline to apply is June 1, 2011.

Heidi Mason
Director, Legal Advice and Representation